1. What you're covered for

This section explains what this Policy covers.

1.1 Liability

We'll cover your legal liability to pay for Compensation and costs awarded against you for:

- (a) Personal Injury
- (b) Property Damage and/or
- (c) Advertising Liability

provided it:

- (d) first happens during your Policy Period and
- (e) is caused by an Occurrence in connection with your Business.

1.2 Personal Injury

means:

- (a) death
- (b) injury, illness or disability, either bodily or mental
- (c) shock, fright and mental anguish
- (d) the effects of:
 - (i) false arrest, false imprisonment or malicious prosecution
 - (ii) trespass onto land, or eviction from land
 - (iii) defamation or disparagement
 - (iv) assault and battery.

We consider latent Personal Injury first happens on the day it was first medically diagnosed provided that it is first diagnosed during your Policy Period.

Personal Injury: an example of a claim paid

The business insured is a chain of thirty grocery stores. A staff member accidentally knocks a bunch of grapes to the floor and fails to pick them up. They cause a shopper to slip and injure their shoulder. The injured shopper sues the business insured for medical costs as well as damages, as they were unable to return to work for three months. We investigate and conclude the insured business breached their duty of care at that store and was at fault for the shopper's injury. We dealt with the lawyer for the shopper and reached an agreement to cover their medical costs and damages, plus the legal expenses involved. The only cost to the business insured was the deductible as shown on the Certificate of Insurance.

1.3 Property Damage

means:

- (a) physical damage to tangible property, including any resulting loss of use of that property or
- (b) loss of use of tangible property caused by an Occurrence, which has not been physically damaged, lost or destroyed.

1.4 Advertising Liability

means liability arising out of one or more of the following:

- (a) defamation
- (b) infringement of copyright, title or slogan
- (c) unfair competition or misappropriation of advertising ideas or business practices
- (d) actual or alleged invasions of privacy:
 - (i) in any Advertisement and
 - (ii) arising out of your Business's advertising activities or
- (e) unintentional breach of the misleading or deceptive conduct provisions of consumer protection laws.

In this definition, Advertisement means any type of communication to the public. This includes print and electronic media, electronic communication, the world wide web or an exhibit.

Property Damage: an example of a claim paid

The business insured is a small building firm that predominantly does renovation work and some new builds. While working on a home renovation the business insured fails to secure a ladder which falls and damages the customer's car bonnet and wing. The customer's insurer pays the repair cost of $4,000 and now seeks to recover that cost from the business insured. The business insured pays QBE the deductible and QBE pays $4,000 to the customer's insurer.

1.5 Defence of claims

- (a) If we agree to cover you, we will:
 - (i) defend, in your name and on your behalf, any claim against you seeking Compensation for liability even if the claim is groundless or fraudulent
 - (ii) investigate, negotiate and settle any claim or legal action as we see fit
 - (iii) pay all legal costs and expenses we incur and all interest accruing after judgment until we have paid out (to the claimant or to a court) our liability under the judgment up to the Limit of Liability
 - (iv) pay your reasonable expenses of defending the claim incurred with our consent
 - (v) pay the premium for appeal bonds, release attachment bonds and bonds for the security of costs in relation to a claim, but we won't apply for these bonds or pay the bonds themselves

 - (vii) pay up to $100,000 for your reasonable loss of earnings if we ask you attend a hearing, but we won't otherwise cover your loss of earnings
 - (viii) pay your reasonable first aid expenses for personal Injury, unless the law prevents us.
- (b) We won't pay defence costs or continue to defend the claim after we have paid out the Limit of Liability.

1.6 Limit of liability

- (a) The Limit of Liability (on the Certificate of Insurance) is the most we will pay for:
 - (i) any one claim or series of claims against you caused by one Occurrence or
 - (ii) the total aggregate liability of all claims against you caused by your Products during one Policy Period
- (b) Only amounts paid to settle claims and to pay costs awarded against you count towards your Limit of Liability. Amounts we pay for defence costs don't count towards the Limit of Liability.

Optional extensions

Your business may involve risks that this Policy does not cover. For some of these, we offer optional extensions to extend your cover to meet these liabilities.

For any of these extensions to apply:

- you have to ask us to include them in your Policy
- your business must meet our underwriting criteria for each of the extensions you select and
- you need to pay us extra premium.

Your Certificate of Insurance will note if any of these optional extensions apply. Unless stated otherwise, they will only apply from the time they are included in your Policy.

The optional extensions that may be available to you include:

- Products exported to United States of America or Canada with your knowledge
- Product recall expenses
- Errors and omissions

2.12 Participation

We don't cover liability in respect of Personal Injury to any person due to participating in any game, match, race, practice, trial, training, competition, warm ups, warm downs and other preliminary activities, unless the Personal Injury is due to your negligence in relation to the facility provided.

Faulty workmanship: an example of a claim denied

One of the services the insured business provides is tiling. The insured was contracted to install tiles in three apartment bathrooms, but failed to lay the tiles correctly. This allowed water to pass between the tiles, damaging the wall. The customer of the insured makes claim against the business for the cost of repairing the wall and re-laying the tiles. Defective Products: an example of a claim partially paid

The business insured manufactures and distributes pressure cookers. Due to a defect in the locking mechanism, the lids of the cookers tend to release under pressure. This allows hot liquids to escape and injure customers and damage their homes.

Covered is the cost of compensating customers of the business insured for their injuries and the damage to their property. However not covered was the cost of replacing the pressures cookers because they were defective products and therefore excluded in the Policy.

A spark ignites the fumes causing a fire that spreads through the workshop and destroys the cars of five customers. The cost to repair the cars is $300,000. The business insured's care, custody and control sublimit is $250,000. The business insured pays us its $1,000 deductible and we pay the agreed $250,000 sublimit to the claimants. The remainder of the cost to repair is the responsibility of the business insured.

You must

Phone your financial service provider immediately about any Occurrence, claim, writ, summons, proceeding, impending prosecution or inquest that could result in a claim on this Policy, even if you think the claim amount will be lower than the Deductible.

Give us any information we ask for to assess and investigate the claim.

Take all reasonable precautions to prevent further loss or damage.

Preserve all property, Products, appliances, plant, equipment or anything else that might help in the investigation or defence of a claim or help us recover money from others that contributed to or caused the claim to be made.

Co-operate with us fully to investigate the claim, to defend it in court and in any action we take to recover money payable under this Policy from any other person.

Pay the Deductible for each claim within 14 days of us asking you to pay it.

Phone your financial service provider if you need advice on what to do.

You must not

Admit liability, negotiate or make any promise or payment unless we first agree in writing. This applies to you and anyone else making a claim under this Policy. Failure to comply with this clause could jeopardise your claim.

4. Things you need to know

General conditions

4.1 Acquisition of properties or companies

We will cover properties, assets, companies, firms, entities or other bodies:

- formed, purchased or managed by you while you are insured by this Policy and
- that undertake activities consistent with the description of the Business in the Certificate of Insurance.

If a new acquisition represents more than 15% of your current turnover, we may revise the terms of the Policy, which could change your premium. If you don't accept the revised terms then the new acquisition will not be covered by the Policy.

We won't cover any claims of Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability that happened before the acquisition, formation or assumption of management responsibility.

4.2 Cancelling your Policy

You can cancel your Policy by telling your financial service provider.

We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law. If we do, we'll tell you in writing.

We will refund you any premium for the remaining Policy Period above any agreed minimum premium. If your premium is being or has been adjusted, you still need to provide all the required information to enable the adjustment and to pay the amount of adjustment up to the date of cancellation.

4.3 Changes in circumstances

You need to tell your financial service provider in writing as soon as possible if anything has changed since your Policy started that could increase the risk of Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability.

Based on this information we may at our discretion:

- charge additional premium
- amend or impose additional terms or conditions or
- cancel the Policy.

Any changes to your Policy will take effect when we issue a new Certificate of Insurance and/or an endorsement schedule, stating the change.

4.4 Adjustment of premium

Where the Certificate of Insurance shows your premium was wholly or partially calculated on estimates, you must within 30 days of the expiry of the Policy Period provide us or your financial services provider information required to calculate your adjusted premium. The change to your premium could result in you paying additional premium or us refunding you a portion of the premium. In all recalculations any minimum premium specified in the Certificate of Insurance will always be applicable.

You must keep a record of the information you provide and allow us to inspect or make copies of this at a reasonable notice.

4.5 Cross liability

Where this Policy insures more than one party, we will consider each of the parties separate and distinct units and the words 'you', 'your' or 'yours' will apply to each party in the same way as if they'd each been issued a separate Policy.

Nothing in this general condition will increase our Limit of Liability for any Occurrence or Policy Period.

4.6 Inspection of property

We may inspect your property and operations at any time. You may not use our failure to inspect, or any inspection report made by us or others on our behalf, in any action or proceeding involving us

We may examine and audit your books and records at any time while you're insured and for three years after, but we will only examine and audit matters that are relevant to the Policy.

4.7 Jurisdiction

The laws of Australia govern this Policy. All disputes relating to this Policy will be subject to determination by any court of competent jurisdiction within Australia.
