You must

Contact your financial service provider as soon as practicable about any Occurrence, claim, writ, summons, proceeding, impending prosecution or inquest that could result in a claim on this Policy, even if you think the claim amount will be lower than the Deductible.

Give us any relevant information we reasonably ask for to assess and investigate the claim.

Take all reasonable precautions to prevent further loss or damage.

Preserve all property, Products, appliances, plant, equipment or anything else that might help in the investigation or defence of a claim or help us recover money from others that contributed to or caused the claim to be made.

Co-operate with us to investigate the claim, to defend it in court and in any action we take to recover money payable under this Policy from any other person.

Pay the Deductible for each claim within 14 days of us asking you to pay it.

Contact your financial service provider if you need advice on what to do.

You must not

Admit liability, negotiate or make any promise or payment unless we first agree in writing. This applies to you and anyone else making a claim under this Policy. Failure to comply with this clause could jeopardise your claim.

 - > provide us with the assistance and information we need to do this, and
 - > co-operate with our reasonable requests.
- You must not prevent our right of recovery. That is, if someone is liable to compensate you for a loss, damage or liability you can't agree not to seek compensation from them.
- If you've agreed with or told someone who caused you loss, damage or liability covered by your policy that you won't hold them responsible then, to the extent we've been prejudiced by this act, we won't cover you for that loss, damage or liability.
- We won't seek recovery from anyone insured by this policy. Additionally, we won't seek recovery from any parent company or majority shareholder of any corporation insured by this policy, except to the extent another policy of insurance covers them for the liability this Policy covers.

3.8 Contribution

- When making a claim, you must notify us of any other insurance which will or may, whether in whole or in part, cover any loss insured under your Policy.

If at the time of any loss, damage or liability there's any other insurance (whether effected by you or by any other person) which covers the same loss, damage or liability you must provide us with any reasonable assistance we require to make a claim for contribution from any other insurer(s).

4. Things you need to know

General conditions

4.1 Acquisition of properties or companies

We will cover properties, assets, companies, firms, entities or other bodies:

- formed, purchased or managed by you while you are insured by this Policy and
- that undertake activities consistent with the description of the Business in the Certificate of Insurance.

If a new acquisition represents more than 15% of your current turnover, we may revise the terms of the Policy, which could change your premium. If you don't accept the revised terms then the new acquisition will not be covered by the Policy.

We won't cover any claims of Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability that happened before the acquisition, formation or assumption of management responsibility.

4.2 Cancelling your Policy

You can cancel your Policy by telling your financial service provider.

We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law. If we do, we'll tell you in writing.

We will refund you any premium for the remaining Policy Period above any agreed minimum premium. If your premium is being or has been adjusted, you still need to provide all the required information to enable the adjustment and to pay the amount of adjustment up to the date of cancellation.

4.3 Changes in circumstances

You need to tell your financial service provider in writing as soon as possible if anything has changed since your Policy started that could increase the risk of Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability.

Based on this information we may:

- charge additional premium
- amend or impose additional terms or conditions or
- cancel the Policy.

Any changes to your Policy will take effect when we issue a new Certificate of Insurance and/or an endorsement schedule, stating the change.

4.4 Adjustment of premium

Where the Certificate of Insurance shows your premium was wholly or partially calculated on estimates, you must within 30 days of the expiry of the Policy Period provide us or your financial service provider information required to calculate your adjusted premium. The change to your premium could result in you paying additional premium or us refunding you a portion of the premium. In all recalculations any minimum premium specified in the Certificate of Insurance will always be applicable.

You must keep a record of the information you provide and allow us to inspect or make copies of this at a reasonable notice.

4.5 Cross liability

Where this Policy insures more than one party, we will consider each of the parties separate and distinct units and the words 'you', 'your' or 'yours' will apply to each party in the same way as if they'd each been issued a separate Policy.

Nothing in this general condition will increase our Limit of Liability for any Occurrence or Policy Period.

4.6 Inspection of property

We may inspect your property and operations at any time, with reasonable notice. You may not use our failure to inspect, or any inspection report made by us or others on our behalf, in any action or proceeding involving us.

We may examine and audit your books and records at any time (with reasonable notice) while you're insured and for three years after, but we will only examine and audit matters that are relevant to the Policy.

4.7 Jurisdiction

The laws of Australia govern this Policy. All disputes relating to this Policy will be subject to determination by any court of competent jurisdiction within Australia.

4.8 Notices

We may send letters, policy and other related documents to you. If we email them to you, we'll consider the email to be received by you 24 hours after we send it.

Please make sure we have your current email and mailing address on record, and let us know as soon as these change.

4.9 Other insurance

- If a policy of insurance or policies of insurance are listed in your Certificate of Insurance, those policies will act as primary insurance and this Policy will only apply in excess of such policies of insurance.
- You shall notify us as soon as practicable upon entering into any other policies of insurance that provides insurance cover in respect of the risks insured by this Policy.
- You shall maintain the policies noted in your Certificate of Insurance in full effect during the currency of this Policy.

4.10 Other interests

Any person who has an interest in the Policy is noted on the Certificate of Insurance. Transfers of interest in the Policy can only be made with our written consent.

4.11 Reasonable care

You must:

- take all reasonable precautions to prevent Personal Injury, Property Damage, Advertising Liability, the manufacture, sale or supply of defective Products
- take reasonable action to trace, recall or modify any of your Products containing any defect or deficiency of which you have knowledge or have reason to suspect, including (but not limited to) any of your Products subject to governmental or statutory ban
- ensure only competent employees are employed and take reasonable measures to maintain all premises, fittings and plant in sound condition
- ensure that your employees, contractors, or anyone else who completes work for you complies with all statutory obligations, by-laws or regulations imposed by all relevant public authorities for the:
 - > safety of persons or property
 - > disposal of waste products and
 - > handling, storage or use of flammable liquids, substances, gases or toxic chemicals.

Other important information

4.12 Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for or
- is common knowledge or
- we know or should know as an insurer or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your Policy or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

4.13 Payment of premium

- You must pay your premium on time otherwise your Policy may not operate.
- You may choose to pay your premium by instalments. If you do so, you must ensure you pay the instalments on time as we may cancel the Policy if any instalment of premium has remained unpaid for one month from the date on which payment was due.
- You may have a credit arrangement with your financial services provider. You must comply with the terms of your agreement with your financial services provider.
- We will send you a notice giving you details of the action we intend to take and when any cancellation will become effective.
- If you are paying your premium in instalments by direct debit from your credit card or financial institution account you must tell us if those details change. You must do this no later than seven days before your next instalment is due.
- We are entitled to deduct from any amount we pay you under a claim any unpaid premium or instalment of premium.
